

Contents

PART I: INTRODUCTION	1
1 The Impact of Populist Parties on Party Systems Steven Wolinetz and Andrej Zaslove	3
PART II: SIMPLE AND EXTENDED MULTIPARTY SYSTEMS	25
2 The Impact of the Populist Radical Right on the Austrian Party System Franz Fallend and Reinhard Heinisch	27
3 From Limited Multipartism to Extended Multipartism? The Impact of the Lijst Pim Fortuyn, the Partij voor de Vrijheid and the Socialistische Partij on the Dutch Party System Sarah L. de Lange	55
4 Political Achievements, Party System Changes and Government Participation: The Case of the ‘New’ Swiss People’s Party Oscar Mazzoleni	83
5 Shaken, but Not Stirred: How Right-wing Populist Parties Have Influenced Parties and Party Systems in Scandinavia Anders Ravik Jupskås	103
6 Finnish Populism: Keeping It in the Family? David Arter	145

PART III: BIPOLAR AND POST-COMMUNIST PARTY SYSTEMS	169
7 No Longer a Pariah? The Front National and the French Party System Gilles Ivaldi	171
8 Italian Populism: Toppling and Re-building the Party System Twice Bertjan Verbeek, Andrej Zaslove and Matthijs Rooduijn	197
9 Earthquake or Hurricane? The Rise and Fall of Populist Parties in Poland Fernando Casal Bértoa and Simona Guerra	223
10 Governmental and Oppositional Populism: Competition and Division of Labour Zsolt Enyedi and Dániel Róna	251
PART IV: CONCLUSION	273
11 Populist Parties and the Changing Contours of European Party Systems Steven Wolinetz	275
Index	321
About the Contributors	337